NOTE: Our AMIT clients have 1st choice, but we do reserve a limited number of spots for off the farm riders. AMIT clients need to fill out and turn in a registration paper and a $100.00 deposit 3 weeks prior to the camp. Off the farm riders can reserve their spot by submitting their registration, waiver, and a $100.00 deposit beginning April 1st.

June (Monday), 19th to (Friday), 23rd - Advanced Camp- The main purpose of this activity is to provide a more intense environment to improve your riding. We hope you'll experience some new training ideas. You must be able to walk/trot/canter and canter jumps.

“NEW” June (Monday), 26th to (Friday), 30th - 1st Horsemanship Program- The horsemanship program is a weeklong lesson to familiarize you with some perhaps overlooked horsemanship topics. Topics include basic needs of the horse and how to meet those, grooming, tacking up, feeding, farrier, etc. It will include riding, but riding skills are not the focus of this lesson.

July (Monday), 17th to (Friday), 21st - 1st Day Camp- This camp will focus on Show Preparation. You will prepare for the Midnite Madness Show the Saturday after camp- July 22nd (showing in Midnite Madness is optional, and you will need to pay the entry fee- $10.00 per class, $30.00 per division). Open to all levels from never ridden to walk/trot/canter and jump.

“NEW” July (Monday), 31st to (Friday), August 4th - 2nd Horsemanship Program- This is the second of three programs. Depending on who signs up, we may cover topics not included in the first one or the same ones from the first one. The horsemanship program is a weeklong lesson to familiarize you with some perhaps overlooked horsemanship topics. Topics include basic needs of the horse and how to meet those, grooming, tacking up, feeding, farrier, etc. It will include riding, but riding skills are not the focus of this lesson.

August (Monday), 14th to (Friday), 18th - 2nd Day Camp- This camp is for all levels. It will focus on Show Preparation. You will prepare for the End of Summer Show the Sunday after camp- Aug 20th (showing in End of Summer is optional, and you will need to pay the entry fee- $10.00 per class, $30.00 per division). Open to all levels from never ridden to walk/trot/canter and jump.

“NEW” August (Monday), 21st to (Friday), 25th - 3rd Horsemanship Program- This is the third of three programs. Depending on who signs up, we may cover topics not included in the previous sessions or the same ones from the previous. The horsemanship program is a weeklong lesson to familiarize you with some perhaps overlooked horsemanship topics. Topics include basic needs of the horse and how to meet those, grooming, tacking up, feeding, farrier, etc. It will include riding, but riding skills are not the focus of this lesson.

When riding you will need long pants, closed toed shoes with a heel, and a short sleeve shirt. For non-riding times you can bring a change of clothes (such as shorts, tee shirt) and for our “play in the water” afternoons you can bring a swimsuit, flip flops and a towel.
